Celebrate the Holiday Season with SOS!

SOS has a rich variety of activities to celebrate the holidays!

- Regional Pre-Thanksgiving Dinners, gobble, gobble, gobble!
- Designing/decorating/crewing the SOS entry to the Parade of Lights boat parade
- Sunday Brunches
- Fireside Chats
- Parade of Lights Watch Party
- Christmas Day Dinner

First up is a SOS tradition since at least 1982 — Regional Pre-Thanksgiving Dinners! Celebrated this year on Sunday, November 23. These gatherings are always warm and friendly dinners with everyone contributing their finest cooking. Members in Bethesda, Delaware, and Annapolis have volunteered their homes this year.

Here's how it works. The host/ess arranges for the turkey, beverages, sets the time, etc. They also coordinate the side dishes each person will contribute to the meal to make sure there are not three sweet potato casseroles and no dessert. The guests bring their favorite holiday dish to share, help clean up, and contribute up to $15 to cover expenses. A fun time is always had by all!

Sign up by Monday, November 17th by sending an email to Hope Andruss, hopedav@verizon.net

Susan Zevin, Commodore

Dear Fellow Crew
Mates,

Sometimes a little change in perspective makes a big difference. Our bareboat cruises always expand our horizons — Stockholm, Mallorca, New Zealand. Different history, cultures, languages, and sailing protocols. Back home, however, our recent trip to Lake Michigan was a wonderful revelation. I hadn't a clue what to expect. My past Midwest travel was by plane or long stretches of flat highway. But bareboating on the Great Lakes? All I could think of was The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald.

We chartered from Traverse City: If you hold your right hand up, palm facing, Michigan is a mitten. At the thumb joint sits Traverse City, home of the Great Lakes Sailing Company. A clean, well-run operation, GLSC offered us a Catalina 385, "Themiscyra." (Themiscyra was an ancient Greek village, the mythical capital of Amazonian Women warriors, and supposed birthplace of Wonder Woman.)

From the start, the sailing was excellent. The Lake's water is clean, clear, deep flag blue, as they say, "PureMichigan." There were wonderfully long reaches on prevailing south- or northwesterlies and swells on the stern; pounding into it on return. Marina entrances, sometimes privately marked, are hidden behind massive rip-rap berms running parallel to shore as protection from the well-known stormy wind and waves of the Lakes. It is a Great Lakes norm, the zig-zag entrances.

Every town we visited was welcoming—friendly, tidy, well-provisioned, and well-kept. Bay Harbor, Boyne City, Charlevoix, Northport, and Sutton's Bay all had charm to spare — truly "Midwest Nice."

In one harbor, the Harbormaster came striding down the dock: "I figured you were 'coasties' when I heard how you tied up," he said. "On the Lakes, you give the dockhand the bitter end, and put the loop on your cleat. Hand them the loop, and they'll think you don't know what you're doing." Then, with a grin, he pointed toward town: "Main Street's three blocks long, two blocks wide. If you get lost in here, you shouldn't be out there" (in the lake).

Beyond the sailing itself, many of the towns we visited carry deep history back to Native American roots and the settlers of the late 1800's. Northport's Main Street once marked the divide between Indian territory and settler land. The Ojibwe, Chippewa, and Potawatomi had lived here long before the pioneers. By the late 1800s, travelers came west for sightseeing the "Wild West." Many stayed for good, having run out of money to return home! Many adopted these forests and arable lands to make their lives in this rugged, beautiful place.

This trip reminded us that adventure isn't always overseas—sometimes it's right here at home. Lake Michigan proved to be a gem.

(Addendum: For those readers interested in the region's First Peoples, I highly recommend Louise Erdrich's works. And if you go farther north, cross the Mackinac Bridge to the Upper Peninsula, you'll find the Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum and the Soo Locks. Both are well worth the drive.)

Unofficial Board Notes September 2, 2025 — Zoom

Official September Minutes will be posted on the SOS website when approved in October by the Board of Directors.

Meeting Called to Order: by Commodore Susan Zevin at 6:01 pm.

Approval of Minutes: Minutes of the regular 7 August meeting, and minutes of regular 1 July meeting, including corrected wording of Cruising Committee proposal MOTION 202507-1 as actually approved by the BOD, were approved. A clarifying resolution specifying the exact changes required to SOS Policies in order to implement MOTION 202507-1 was approved:

MOTION 202509-1: SOS Policies and Procedures are amended by adding the following to the end of section 3. Cruising g. Rafting/Docking, iii:

In the event that a skipper cancels marina attendance due to severe weather that would present a safety risk to the boat and/or crew, the skipper may file for a reimbursement of non-refundable slip fees, on a case-by-case basis, with submission of both a receipt and written justification. All conditions for reimbursement must be met, and exclusions for reimbursement may apply, including due to boat issues or personal issues of the skipper and/or crew.

Vice Commodore: Karl Scible

Returned all storage locker supplies from Town Hall. Worked with Database to ensure nominees' bios were made available on both the Whisker Pole as well as on the SOS web site. Clarified voting timelines with several members. Working on the Awards to be given out at the January Brunch.

Treasurer: Janet Pennewell

The balance in our club checking account decreased as we paid all the expenses related to the Seafood Feast and the Town Hall meeting.

The balance in our Bareboat account increased due to skipper and crew deposits for the Grenada trip. Deb Kauffman and I have been working with the Database team to enable E-Checks for the payment of bareboat cruises.

July's positive balance on our credit card has been refunded to us and applied to the Bareboat account – it resulted from refunds from the cancelled Lake Huron trip.

As of the end of July, we appear to be comfortably on track to meet our budget projections for the year and expect to end the year with a small positive net income.

OysterFest

Sail/Drive-in October 24-26th

SOS is going to have a three-day sail/drive in to the OysterFest at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum in St. Michael's, MD. We will sail to CBMM on Friday October 24 so we can enjoy the OysterFest all day on Saturday October 25 from 10-4:00.

Why do we keep going back? It's not because we all love to eat oysters. In addition to oysters that are fried, steamed, raw, in chowder, there will be food trucks offering a variety of Chesapeake delicacies such as burgers and other kinds of foods. Guests will also have a beverage selection that includes specialty cocktails and an array of local craft beer options. All food and drinks are an additional charge.

In addition, there will be live music, a full schedule of demonstrations and presentations, and, on Navy Point, the American Chesapeake Club will share demonstrations highlighting the retrieving abilities of its Chesapeake Bay retrievers. And don't forget CBMM's long-term exhibitions offer an in-depth look at the Chesapeake's boatbuilding traditions and watercraft, the seafood industry, recreational boating, lighthouses and maritime navigation, drawing from their unique world-class collections of objects, art, and photography, to tell the stories of individuals, groups, and communities along the Bay.

OysterFest tickets can be purchased in advance online, or at the door. Admission is set at $22 for adults, $19 for seniors (65+). Tickets for CBMM members are $10.

Aside from the OysterFest, SOS will have a Happy Hour on Friday and Saturday nights. Bring an appetizer and your own beverages. Often, groups go out to eat after Happy Hour or have dinner on the boat. There is also kayaking (reserve your kayak early!), biking, two places for wine tasting, and one for rum tasting. Tour the town's Halloween decorations, restaurants, and shops!

If you drive in, there are plenty of hotels, inns, and B&Bs. Make your reservations now.

If you sail in, Friday departure is necessary if booking a slip (2 night minimum). The club will reimburse one night of the slip fee if the skipper has taken at least one crew from coordination. Crew should be prepared to share in the cost of the second night.

To get a slip at the CBMM, you must have a membership there at the Mariner level or higher. You can register for a slip online at the Boat Docking button on <https://cbmm.org/docking-at-cbmm/M> - Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum starting at 12:01 AM on September 25.

If you are not a CBMM member, another good option for a slip is at Higgins Yacht Yard next door. Contact them at Higgins Yacht Yard or (410) 745-9303. Or you can anchor out and dinghy in or use the St. Michael's water taxi.

Click Oktoberfest Cruise to register for the sail.

- Saturday: Oct 25, 2025
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM EDT
- Location: Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum
213 North Talbot St.

Parade of Lights

It is time to think about the Lighted Boats Parade. Once more, our Skipper Chuck Fort is offering his boat, his time, and talents to allow SOS to have an entry in the December 13 Eastport Yacht Club Lights Parade. We will brainstorm a new design, then have "work" sessions to dismantle some of the prior design elements and incorporate this year's theme.

Starting in early November, we will find times and locations to work on the "mainsail" to hoist on Chuck's boat. We will do a "dry run" and assemble all parts onto the boat the weekend of December 6/7 and the following weekend is the Lights Parade. There are lots of ways to be involved – share an idea, come volunteer once, come many times, help with boat transport, with snacks/food at work sessions, ride the boat the night of...there will be a way for you to be included.

If you are interested in being copied on the schedule as we plan our work sessions (and let me know when and how you want to participate), please contact Janet Gonski at JGSunset@yahoo.com or text me at 443-223-6139.

Database would like to know:

1. Is the cut off date for the BOD elections 9/30 or 10/1?
2. Should I put the list of candidates on the front page of the website? If so, when?
3. How is the electronic vote sent to members?
4. Clarification of "Guest Skipper" – Are they invited guests of an active skipper or are they signing up for a sail in the hopes of being placed with an active skipper?

Database wants to circle back to:

- Help people that have had a hard time logging in to a registration form.
- Help clean up FM profiles.

Education: Chair TBD; Spring Training Chair: Milyn Jordan

- All candidates for the Education Delivery focus group were contacted, 9 total confirmed focus group members. First meeting will be the third or fourth week in September.
- The AACC facilities request for Spring Training 2026 was submitted and receipt confirmed. Final date will likely not be confirmed by AACC until December.

First Mates: Lora Donia

Jean Pierre Ple' has officially joined the ranks of First Mates. Congratulations! Currently, two First Mate Candidates are actively working toward completing their checkout requirements. Following up on a safety report from a recent cruise...communicating with Cruising and Skippers Advisory. Also, have been updating some working documents and activating the boats of any new skippers.

Skippers Advisory: Sandy Rosswork

No new skippers joined the club in the past month. There was some confusion about the designation as "guest skipper," when an eligible SOS skipper signs up for a cruise, as shown on the website. Current policy seems to have now been clarified.

Social: Tina Lavato and Kathy McFadden

Seafood Feast - August 16th

- Final attendance at the event was 82, with 46 opting for the AYE crabs, so that proved to be a popular option. We came in slightly over budget. The Event Managers are preparing a detailed event report.
- About 33% of attendees responded to the post event survey. Overall, the event received high marks (food and entertainment), but there were several negative comments regarding the start time for the food service, overall cost of the event, and several suggestions that the music include more up-to-date songs. The Social Committee is discussing how to address these issues in the future and will be eliciting feedback from our members.

Chili Cook-off - Oct 18th

- To date, we have 16 attendees registered: ten cruising in and six driving in. Those that are driving in have already notified the event manager of what side-dish they intend to bring.
- [Reiterating] Fees will remain the same as last year: $38.00 for those cruising in, and $20.00 + a side-dish for those driving in. Each boat cruising in will be responsible for bringing a pot of chili for the contest.

Where Do We Go?

Bareboat Destinations

By Deb Kauffman, Bareboat Co-Chair

How does the Bareboat Committee determine our next destination?

There are a number of considerations in the determination of our destinations. Of primary consideration is our members' safety. Is this destination a safe place to travel?

Can a charter company be found in the location? It took considerable research to find a charter company in Sweden and New Zealand.

Have we gone to this destination previously? If so, when was the last time we visited? Did our members like this destination?

Is there a member who is willing to act as the coordinator for this trip? Without a coordinator, we don't have a trip.

How technical was the sailing? The BVI have a reputation for easy sailing, a perfect location for a beginner to start bareboating. By contrast, the San Juan Islands sailing was trickier, with the winds, tides, and currents.

Are the destinations balanced among trips between the USA and closer destinations as compared to Europe, Caribbean and Asia? And can we balance the trips between lower priced and more expensive trips?

Can we find, plan, and balance trips that appeal to all our members' ages and physical conditions. A canal trip draws members who might not choose a sailing trip where getting in and out of a dinghy might not be possible for them.

And finally, the most important consideration is where do our members want to go? Members tell us. We ask at Spring Training, Happy Hours, and through surveys. We keep lists and look at those destinations frequently.

Drop us a note. Where do YOU want to go?

SOS Wellness Protocol Revised (3/7/2024)

All participants attending SOS in-person events should be feeling well. They should not attend an event if they have symptoms of a communicable respiratory or gastrointestinal illness, are "feeling like something is coming on," have a recent significant exposure to someone with a communicable respiratory or gastrointestinal illness, or have not waited a recommended isolation time after a recent respiratory or gastrointestinal infection. In addition, a skipper/host may have further requirements or request other preventive measures (for example, crew or guests having received the currently recommended COVID-19 vaccine or wearing masks when below deck). All in-person participants should expect to be denied admission without a refund if they fail to comply with this policy.
